Legend of JANAT

An inspiring true story of two French cats

JANAT legend began in 1872 in the heart of the Provence in France. Founder Jean Dorez travelled from the port of Marseille all over the world and brought back tea, coffee and cocoa.

It was in India that they called him Janat instead of Jean and as this name brought him luck, he called the company JANAT TEA Paris .

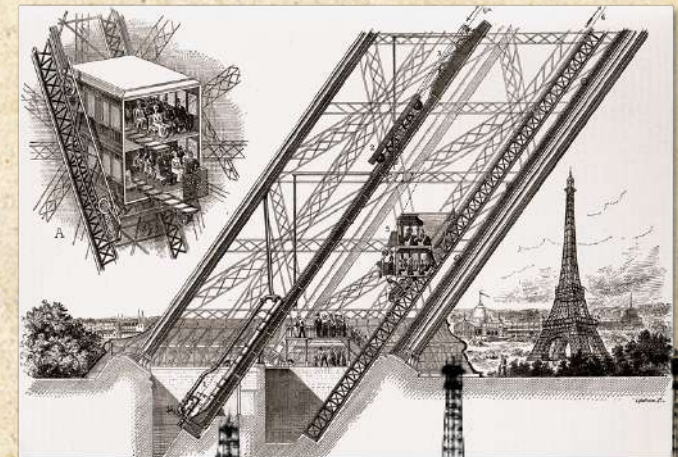

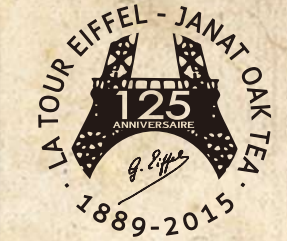

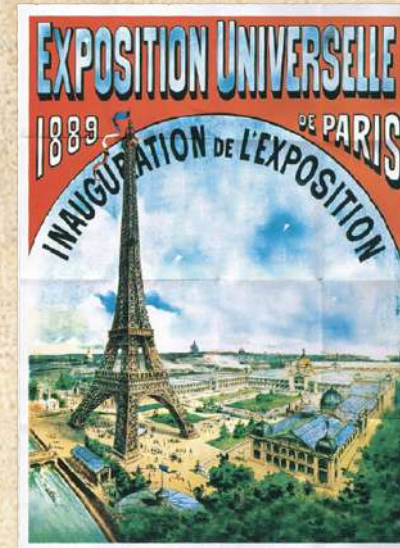

During the travel of Mr Dorez, and without any modern communication tools, no one knew when he coming back home and only his two cats "Sam" and "Beau" always felt the presence of their master and waited for him at the door precisely on the day of his return. They are considered as lucky charm by a lot of customers in France and Japan.

At the Paris universal expo of 1889, JANAT tea was served as Janat Dorez was one of tower investor and friend of Gustave Eiffel.

Today, the two cats represent JANAT's "entrepreneurship" and "passion" of making dreams come true.

"Fortunate are those who have dreams and do the impossible to make them reality." – Janat Dorez

"Today after 150 years of heritage about voyage, cats and entrepreneurship, Janat brand wish to inspire women to inspire kindness and empathy over each cup of tea" Machiko Gozen - President

Visionary & Imagination

1872 – For the love of cats

After long trip, as a true story, Janat Does two cats 'Sam & Beau' always waited for him at the door precisely on the day of his return event no one in his family knew in advance when he would come back. But his cats always sensed the presence of their master. The statues of these cats are still visible today on rue des Entrepreneurs in Paris, where they are considered to be lucky charms for Parisians

Travelling the world, he encountered marvelous visionaries like Jules Verne who wrote the book "Le tour du monde en 80 jours (Around the World in Eighty Days)" whose story started the same year as JANAT.

Their common vision allowed the invention of the JANAT French Oak Tea that was served at inauguration of the Exposition Universelle of 1889. Using French Oak Barrel to age the tea leaves, this process grants a unique deep flavour appreciated by world's top sommeliers. Today, The Oak barrel is made in France by traditional craftsmen from Champagne recognized Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant (Company of French living heritage). This crafted tea is the essence of Janat family house's spirit of extraordinary voyage.
